The database and its contents remain at MP MAJSTER-POL. The User's personal data will not be transferred by us or our representatives for use in any form to third parties, unless the User agrees or is required by law.

Cookie

This website uses the so-called "Cookies". Cookies are small text files that are stored in the memory of your device via the browser. They store certain information (e.g. your preferred language or website settings) that your browser can (depending on the storage time of the cookie) resend the next time you visit our website.

Our website uses the following types of cookies:

- Session cookies - to save the user's session, check the login status, activity between subpages, recognize a new and returning user, adjust the website template to the type of web browser and screen width. These are temporary files that are stored in the user's browser until the browser is closed.
- Permanent cookies - files used for website statistics and to maintain user preferences. The files remain in the user's browser for a specified number of days or until they are manually deleted by the user from his web browser.
- Third-party cookies - used in Google and Google Analytics driving maps, social plugins, presented instructional videos

By accessing our website, your browser will transfer certain data to our web server. This is done for technical reasons and necessary to provide the requested information. To facilitate access to the website, the following data is collected, used and stored for a short time:

1. IP address
2. date and time of access
3. Time zone difference to Greenwich Mean Time (GMT)
4. viewed content (specific page)
5. access code / HTTP status
6. transmitted data volume
7. Party requesting access
8. Browser, language settings, operating system and browser version

In addition, to protect our legitimate interests, we store this data for a limited period of time. This allows us to track personal data in the event of an attempted or unauthorized access to our servers.

Most browsers are set up to accept cookies automatically. However, you can disable the storage of cookies or configure the browser so that it informs the User about it before accepting cookies. If you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some of the functions of our website. To change the settings in your browser, please visit the following pages:
